

PRESENT

Alligators, Bats, & Owls... Oh my!

Did you know that unexpected birds and beasts live in El Paso's architecture, found in the decoration of its buildings? Find out why these animals exist and what they tell us about the people who lived here. Learn about how Tom Lea and José Cisneros started a friendship that lasted over fifty years.

itinerary:

- Tour will be adjusted according to specifications of the submitted form
- Appropriate for grades 2-12
- TEKS correlated
- Wear comfortable shoes
- Students will learn about
 - The architectural gems in the Mills building
 - Fray Garcia, XII Travelers monument
 - Los Lagartos, the good, bad, and ugly!
 - Southwest mural by Tom Lea
 - The significance of the Owl and Bee relief by Tom Lea
 - The fascinating history of the region

For more information

Call 915-533-0048 or email marketing@tomlea.net

The Tom Lea Institute and Celebration of our Mountains work hard to bring you FREE, fun, interesting, and memorable experiences. Please consider donating:
tomlea.com/donate
www.celebmtns.org/donation

